

Ghana November 2022

Ultrasound Training, Collaboration and Launch of MotoMeds

Ultrasound Training

- Intermediate level POCUS course as pre-conference course for the African Conference on Emergency Medicine = 35 physicians trained
- Advanced POCUS course at Ghana Armed Forces Medical Services = 20 physicians trained
- Nursing ultrasound course at 37 Military Hospital = 40 nurses trained
- Train-the-trainer ultrasound course at National Ambulance Service = 15 EMTs trained
- Advanced POCUS course as post-conference course for the African Conference on Emergency Medicine = 25 physicians trained
- 135 clinicians trained

Team

- Team of 13 physicians
  - Two faculty from UF
  - One fellow from UF
  - Four faculty from other institutions
  - Five fellows and one resident from other institutions
  - 'External' participants affiliated with UF Global Health informally in one way or another

AfCEM Conference

- Four poster presentations:

- Smith T, Beamon-Scott L, Osei-Ampofo M, Becker TK: Perceived Impact of Advanced Point of Care Ultrasonography Training for Emergency Physicians in Ghana. Presented at the 2022 African Conference on Emergency Medicine in Accra, Ghana.
- Beamon-Scott L, Becker TK, Cadet JC, Milcé J, Darant G, Bitar J, Bitar M: Participant Satisfaction Following a Focused Emergency Medicine Curriculum for Medical Students in Haiti. Presented at the 2022 African Conference on Emergency Medicine in Accra, Ghana.
- Clay CL, Quao NS, Bulley H, Becker TK, Pompa JC: Hands-on Point-of-Care Ultrasound Training Improves Confidence for Use in the Emergency Department at Korle Bu Teaching Hospital, Accra Ghana. Presented at the 2022 African Conference on Emergency Medicine in Accra, Ghana.
- Flaherty KE, Klarman M, Mahama MN, Osei-Ampofo M, Zakariah AN, Nelson EJ, Becker TK: Evaluating Community Demand for A Pediatric Nighttime Telemedicine and Medication Delivery Service: A Cross-Sectional Survey of Households and Providers. Presented at the 2022 African Conference on Emergency Medicine in Accra, Ghana.
- Green – UF faculty/staff, blue – UF alumni, orange – affiliate UF faculty

- One plenary presentation (invited):

- Becker TK: MotoMeds - A Pediatric Nighttime Telemedicine and Medication Delivery Service in Accra.

Meeting with UF partners

Brigadier-General Raymond Ewusi
Commander-in-Chief of Ghana Armed Forces
Medical Services

Launch of MotoMeds

---

MotoMeds is one of many assistance projects supported by the American people through the United States Agency for International Development

MotoMeds Staff

---

Written consent for public release was obtained for all photos depicting patients and their parents.

“Medaase pa” for your support.